AMS COVID-19 Statement

Dear Customers and Suppliers,

In line with the Government's announcement AMS will remain open for the supply of our essential product lines.

- Healthcare PPE Items
- Alpha Soldering Products
- Thermaltronics soldering stations and consumables
- General Consumables and stock Items

Our couriers and supply networks are engaged and fully supporting our efforts to continue to supply these critical product lines.

For any other products and services please contact the AMS Sales Office on 01260 270950 or email sales@ams-electronics.co.uk for further details.

Our primary consideration at all times has been, and will continue to be, the safety of our staff and the community. All members of our team are working in isolation, social distancing measures are in place and a strict cleaning regime has been implemented. We are carefully monitoring the situation on a daily basis ensuring at all times that we follow advice provided by the Government.

We are confident that we have taken all possible measures to reflect where the COVID-19 crisis is today and have tried to anticipate any future steps that might need to be taken.

Our heartfelt sympathies to you all as we are united in this global battle to defeat the COVID19 Virus.

We wish all our customers the very best as we face the biggest challenge most of us have faced in our lives. Please take care, keep safe and look after yourselves and your loved ones.

All the best from the AMS Team
